

Flame of Love Rosary
with Reflections, as of 09/21/2021

This document uses the 50th Rose approach to praying the Rosary. The 50th Rose, as defined by St. Louis Marie De Monfort,¹ inserts a reflective statement at the hinge that separates to two parts of the Hail Mary. The Name “Jesus” is the hinge. Thus, for the first Hail Mary on the Mystery of the Annunciation:

Leader: Hail Mary full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus, whose Mother’s love for God was beyond all others.

Responder: Holy Mary Mother of God pray for us sinners. Spread the effect of grace from Thy Flame of Love over all humanity, now and at the hour of our death. Amen

This document is dated because it is hoped that you will share additional reflections by posting them as comments on this blog or sending them directly to gfbiltz@gmail.com. All reflections in this document are included in the online rendition at <https://Mysteriesoftherosary.org>

Praying the Flame of Love Rosary

1. Contemplation starter (Spoken by Priest, Deacon, or Lay-Leader)²

As we begin this Rosary, let us do our best to pray well.

First - Let us Amplify with Focused Contemplation:

"The Rosary ... at heart is a Christocentric prayer [which] has all the depth of the Gospel message in its entirety ... The center of the gravity in the Hail Mary, the hinge that joins its two parts, is the name of Jesus ... It is precisely the emphasis given to the name of Jesus and to his mystery that is the sign of a meaningful and fruitful Rosary ... The contemplation of Christ has an incomparable model in Mary. With the Rosary, the soul sits at the school of Mary and is led to contemplate the beauty on the face of Christ and to experience the depths of his love" (Pope St. John Paul II). "Without contemplation, the rosary is a body without a soul" (Pope St. Paul VI).

As we contemplate the mysteries of Christ's life, we become more like St. Joseph, who spent thirty years contemplating the face of Christ together with Our Lady.

Second - Let us Weaponize with Intentionality:

The Rosary is one of the most powerful weapons against the principalities and powers, the wickedness and snares of the devil. "The decades of the Rosary are like a machine gun: every bead is a shot, every affection of the soul is an explosion of faith that frightens off Satan, and Mary once more crushes his head" (Servant of God Dolindo Puotolo).

As we enter into the spiritual battle on behalf of our family, our Church and our society, we become more like St. Joseph, who God chose to be the Guardian of the Holy Family and the Patron of the Universal Church. Like St. Joseph, may we become a terror of demons on behalf of our families.

Let us be inspired by the testimonies of countless Saints, Popes, visionaries and Our Lady herself:

- "Dominic, do you know which weapon the Blessed Trinity wants to use to reform the world?" (Our Lady to St. Dominic).
- "The rosary is 'the weapon' for these times" (St. Padre Pio).
- "There is no surer means of calling down God's blessings upon the family ... than the daily recitation of the Rosary" (Pope St. Pius XII).

² Steps 1 and 2 are from the Amici di Giuseppe Rosary Reflections developed by Paradisus Dei <https://paradisusdei.org/>

- "There is no problem, no matter how difficult it is, whether temporal or above all spiritual, in the personal life of each one of us, of our families ... that cannot be solved by the Rosary" (Sister Lucia of Fatima).
- "Give me an army saying the Rosary and I will conquer the world" (Pope Blessed Pius IX).
Let us conquer the world through prayer! In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

2. Consecration to our Lady (Prayed by all participants)

Heavenly Mother, Spotless Bride of the Spotless Lamb, Your children stand gathered together before you. With St. Joseph and Apostle John we wish to bring you into our home, so that you may open to us the treasures of your Immaculate Heart.

Reveal to us the hidden face of your Son, present in our midst. Teach us to trust in the abundance of the Father's mercy. Make us docile to the voice of the Spirit echoing in our depths.
Grant that the seeds of grace sown in us would not be lost but blossom forth into life everlasting.
Dawn of Salvation, Star of the New Evangelization, grant that the darkness may not prevail over the light. Together with St. John Paul II, we consecrate ourselves to you in the mystery of your Immaculate Conception. Totus Tuus.

Send us into the great mission field of the family, so that among all the nations, the praise of God may resound on the lips of infants and babes. By the grace of God, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, help us to build a civilization worthy of the human person, created male and female, created in the image and likeness of the Triune God who is Love. Amen.

3. The Holy Rosary

Make the Sign of the Cross (†)

Unity Prayer:

My adorable Jesus, may our feet journey together. May our hands gather in unity. May our hearts beat in unison. May our souls be in harmony. May our thoughts be as one. May our ears listen to the silence together. May our glances profoundly penetrate each other. May our lips pray together to gain mercy from the Eternal Father. Amen

We offer ourselves to the Heavenly Father through all the wounds of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

We kiss the wounds of Your Sacred Head, with Sorrow deep and true. †

We kiss the wounds of Your Sacred Feet, with sorrow deep and true. †

We kiss the wounds of your Sacred Hands with sorrow deep and true. †

We kiss the wound of your Sacred Shoulder with sorrow deep and true. †

We kiss the wound of your Sacred Side with sorrow deep and true. †

Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of the saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses; as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary x3 (for an increase in the virtues of faith, hope, and charity)

Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women; and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners. Spread the effect of grace from Thy Flame of Love over all humanity, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory Be:

Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Fatima Prayer:

O my Jesus

forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.

Invocation to the Holy Spirit:

Come Holy Spirit

Come by means of the power of the flame of love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Intention:

We pray this rosary for the Holy Souls in Purgatory: our family members who have gone before us, our loved ones who have preceded us, those who are forgotten, and those in most need of our prayers.

Thus we pray:

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses celebrated throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

⁴ The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates the fact that God was physically present in the pillar of smoke and fire all during the Exodus.

⁵ All Jews are required to live in sukkot during the celebration of "God with us" (Tabernacles). A sukkah is a tent with a leaky thatched roof.

⁶ Tabernacles, the Great Celebration of Light is celebrated by erecting four 75' Menorahs in the Court of Women.

We pray for the laity to embrace the call to be laborers in God's vineyard. We also pray for all our separated brothers and sisters in Christ and all non-believers. We pray especially for all those whose lives were consecrated to God and who have attained salvation but have no one to pray for them.

⁸ Joseph was instructed by Gabriel to adopt Jesus when Gabriel told Joseph to name Jesus. In that culture naming was the adoptive act. The child was named at the time of circumcision. That Joseph adopted Jesus is confirmed by the fact that both Mathew and Luke give to Jesus Joseph's genealogy. Joseph has two genealogies because his legal father had died without giving birth to an heir so his father's half-brother following levirate law (Deut 25:5-20) married his mother to give him an heir. Joseph thus has a legal genealogy and a biological genealogy both of which go back to David. (One through Solomon and one through Nathan). All of which is only relevant if Joseph adopted Jesus.

⁹ Redemption of a first born was done on the 30th day after birth and is normally not attended by the mother.

5th Decade: The Finding in the Temple

Intention - Pray for ourselves.

Let us pray for the strength to live lives worthy of the call we have received: to be men and women after God's own heart, to lay down our lives for our spouses in loving sacrifice, to bring joy into our homes and to manifest the merciful love of God the Father to our children. Let us be the salt of the earth, a light to the world, a city set on a hill ... that all may see the good that we do and give glory to God. Let us pray for an increase in people focused on assisting the souls in purgatory.

4th Decade: The Transfiguration

Intention - Pray for the Universal Church.

Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will guide the Pope and bishops to implement Jesus' teachings. We pray for all priests, religious, and all who live a life totally consecrated to God. We pray for the laity to embrace the call to be laborers in God's vineyard. We also pray for all our separated brothers and sisters in Christ and all non-believers. We pray especially for all those whose lives were consecrated to God and who have attained salvation but have no one to pray for them.

- Our Father

 6. speaking about His Exodus.
 7. whose Exodus is through the Crucifixion.

- Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
- O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.
- Come Holy Spirit. Come by means of the power of the flame of love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

5th Decade: The Institution of the Eucharist

Intention - Pray for ourselves.

Let us pray for the strength to live lives worthy of the call we have received: to be men and women after God's own heart, to lay down our lives for our spouses in loving sacrifice, to bring joy into our homes and to manifest the merciful love of God the Father to our children. Let us be the salt of the earth, a light to the world, a city set on a hill ... that all may see the good that we do and give glory to God. Let us pray for an increase in people focused on assisting the souls in purgatory.

 4. celebrating a Thanksgiving sacrifice for the anticipated deliverance.
 5. celebrating a deliverance to be provided, from the cross on Friday.

- O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.
- Come Holy Spirit. Come by means of the power of the flame of love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

²⁹ It says in three of the Gospels that Jesus was anticipating celebrating the Seder with the apostles. There was only one Seder celebrated during Holy Week before Jesus died and that was on the Essene calendar on Tuesday evening.

³⁰ The Essene's were not allowed to offer animal sacrifice in the temple. So the Seder celebration did not have a sacrificial lamb (although they probably had lamb).

³⁵ He took him before the people and unintentionally spoke to the crowd in the words of the prophet Zechariah saying: "Behold the Man" (Jn 19:5, Zech 6:12). The verse in Zechariah says: "Behold the man whose name is Branch; and he shall grow up in his place, and he shall build the temple of God" (Zech 6:12). "Branch" is the primary symbol of the Messiah used also by Isaiah: "There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots" (Is 11:1); and Jeremiah: "See the days are coming when I will raise up a righteous branch for David; as King, he shall govern wisely, he shall do what is right in the land" (Jer 23:5). A typical rabbinical teaching technique is to start a quote: "Behold the Man" and everyone fills in the rest of the quote: "whose name is branch....".

³⁶ The patibulum was the horizontal cross piece. The vertical piece, the stipes was secured into the ground; so, holes didn't need to be dug for every execution.

³⁷ Bernice was the woman who was cured of a hemorrhage by touching the hem of Jesus' garment. (see the Acts of Pilate Chapter VII)

³⁸ Just as Saul's life changing experience on the road to Damascus caused his name to be changed to Paul. Bernice's action was met not with instant death (for touching a condemned prisoner) but with an exclamation of "Vera icona", "true image" by the centurion: thus Bernice became Veronica.

³⁹ "YHVH" is the Hebrew equivalent of "INRI" that we have on top of every crucifix. YHVH is the name of God! It can also be read as "Behold the hand, behold the nail" as each Hebrew letter is also a word. It is also the fulfillment of John 8:28 "When you have lifted up (crucified) the son of Man you will realize that "I AM"! Now, you know the real reason the Jewish leaders wanted Pilate to change it.

⁴⁰ If Jesus dies before being crucified, since He was tortured by the soldiers the centurion had to take his place for the crucifixion.

⁴¹ St. Padre Pio responded to St. John Paul II's question of “Which of Jesus' wounds hurt the most.” with “The wound in the shoulder from carrying the cross.” There were two opportunities for the wound he was referring to: on the shroud we can see tearing of the tissue on the shoulders, and when he fell under the weight of the patibulum the patibulum likely damaged nerves when it fell on Jesus.

⁴² We can see on the shroud that the shoulders and elbow are dislocated. There are three opportunities when this could have happened.

2. At the nailing of his hands to the patibulum. Because Jesus was 6 inches taller than the average man they would have had to stretch his arms as far as possible so that he would not hang down so low that his feet were on the ground. In stretching they could have been dislocated.
3. When they lifted Jesus to attach the patibulum to the stipes for a minute or two Jesus would have been effectively doing an iron cross hanging from just the nails in his hands. It is my opinion that this was when the already damaged shoulders and elbow dislocated.

⁴⁵ "It is finished" is the proclamation of the Nirtzah and also what the priest says when the killing blow has been struck. Jesus' last four statements come within minutes of each other. They are accompanied with excruciating pain because His lungs were so full of fluid that He has to pull himself up with dislocated shoulders and right elbow, causing incredible pain in His shoulders, elbow, and bruised ribs, to expand his lungs in order to expell enough air to make his vocal cords work. In addition the movement of his mouth causes the reoccurrence of the lanciating pain from the thorn in the trigiminal nerve.

Jesus needs to finish the Last Supper in order to fulfill the Feast of Unleavened Bread by completing the Seder Meal; during which He and the apostles left before consuming the 4th Cup and proclaiming the Nirtzah. "It is finished" is the proclamation of the Nirtzah and also what the priest says when the killing blow has been struck. Jesus' last four statements come within minutes of each other. They are accompanied with excruciating pain because His lungs were so full of fluid that He has to pull himself up with dislocated shoulders and right elbow, causing incredible pain in His shoulders, elbow, and bruised ribs, to expand his lungs in order to expell enough air to make his vocal cords work. In addition the movement of his mouth causes the reoccurrence of the lanciating pain from the thorn in the trigiminal nerve.

- Leader: Hail Mary full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus, ...
 1. whose degradation at being stripped naked is compounded by His undergarments which have become the bandage for the wounds from the scourging, being ripped off.
 2. whose median nerves in his hands are severed as His hands are nailed to the patibulum.
 3. who falls to His knees, under the weight of the patibulum, while carrying it to the stipes.
 4. whose head slams into the stipes as the patibulum is attached, driving the thorns further into His brain.
 5. whose nailed hands, now carrying the entire weight of his body, cause His shoulders and elbow to dislocate.⁵²
 6. whose medial plantar nerves in the feet are severed as the feet are nailed to the stipes.
 7. whose head aches both from the crown of thorns and oxygen deprivation.
 8. whose facial nerve damage causes radiating pain with every movement.
 9. whose every effort to speak causes additional pain in the hands, feet, shoulders, chest, and face.
 10. who dies from torture and blood loss due to crucifixion.
- Responder: Holy Mary Mother of God pray for us sinners. Spread the effect of grace from Thy Flame of Love over all humanity, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
- Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
- O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to heaven, especially those in most need of thy mercy.

⁵² We can see on the shroud that the shoulders and elbow are dislocated. There are three opportunities when this could have happened.

1. After death. If Jesus had been in full rigor when taken down from the cross they may have dislocated the shoulders and elbow to break the rigor as we can see from the shroud that the arms are now by his side.
2. At the nailing of his hands to the patibulum. Because Jesus was 6 inches taller than the average man they would have had to stretch his arms as far as possible so that he would not hang down so low that his feet were on the ground. In stretching they could have been dislocated.
3. When they lifted Jesus to attach the patibulum to the stipes for a minute or two Jesus would have been effectively doing an iron cross hanging from just the nails in his hands. It is my opinion that this was when the already damaged shoulders and elbow dislocated.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope, to thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears; turn, then most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us, and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb Jesus. Prayer for the propagation of the Flame of Love

Blessed Virgin Mary, our cherished heavenly Mother, you love God and us, your children, so much that you offer us to your Divine Son Jesus on the Cross, to forgive us by our Heavenly Father and to obtain our salvation, so that all those who believe in Him do not perish but obtain eternal life. With a filial confidence, we pray to you, Virgin Mary, that the Flame of Love of your Immaculate Heart, kindled by the Holy Spirit, you ignite in our languid hearts the fire of a perfect love for God and all humanity, so that together with you, with one heart, we love God and our neighbor. Help us to transmit this holy Flame to all people of good will, so that the Flame of Love extinguishes hatred everywhere on earth and that Jesus, the prince of Peace, be the King and center of all hearts in the Sacrament of His Love on the throne of our altars. Amen

My Adorable Jesus, we ask you to take us in spirit before your Eucharistic Presence throughout the world. Take us and place us where we belong in the Divine Fire. Share with us your Immaculate Conception. Amen

Prayer to St. Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities. Amen.

O most watchful Guardian of the Holy Family, defend the children of God; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness; As you once rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen
